Dalriada in Poland...

Dalriada's visit to Poland last July saw them entertaining all sections of the population.

Warming up the audience in the arena in Biala Podlaska.

Entertaining the inhabitants of the local prison. Dalriada were protected by razor wire and bars from the audience.

Dalriada being visited on stage by the youngest groupie, Natalia, age 3. She followed the band every day in the festival and her mother quickly made her a kilt and plaid so she could feel part of the band.

...and at the Montpellier Ball

And now you can indulge yourselves by trying these mouth-watering recipes...

Atholl Brose from Peter Wright

This is supposed to have its origins in 1474 and named after the then Duke of Atholl, in dispute with the Earl of Ross. It is said that the Duke filled a well with this 'potent libation' so that the Earl would drink deeply and be captured. He was! The recipe is from the 8th Duke.

Put 3 heaped tbs. of oatmeal in a bowl and mix with water to a paste. Stand for about half-an-hour.

Press it through a fine strainer with a spoon to get most of the suspension through and leave dryish oatmeal (a labour!!)

Blend this liquid with 2-3 tbs. of good liquid honey.

Pour into a quart bottle and top-up with whisky (this might equal 500 mls. - care!)

Comments: Caroline suggests using a blender to make the oatmeal as fine as possible to help with the straining. The amount of whisky depends on your preference, and pocket. Some say it is not worth using a malt. Ah well. Cork/cap well, and always shake before pouring.

Atholl Brose Dessert

A luxury!

Whip cream and blend in a few tbs. of the above drink to taste (keep tasting carefully - allow for this essential task in the amount of cream used).

Pour 2-3 tbs. of the above shaken drink into glasses/dishes and top-up with the whipped cream. Sprinkle fine lightly toasted oatmeal on top and serve chilled.

An oatcake does not go amiss.

Recipe from the French Trip to remind you of Summer by Margaret Pinder.

The following recipe produces a wonderfully refreshing summer drink called Marquissette which we were given after one of our dance displays by our grateful audience!

Ingredients

1 litre white wine

2 lemons

sugar to taste

Method

Place the white wine in a glass or earthenware/porcelain container and add the two lemons, well skewered. Stir in some sugar. Steep for 2 days (test for sweetness and add more sugar to taste). Decant the liquid and drink. The Marquissette can be stored in plastic bottles once the lemons have been removed (ours was served from re-used plastic drinks bottles).

Two more favourites of the region: Crème de Mur (Blackberry liqueur) + red wine mixed

Happy tastings!!

In training for the Inca Trail - by Angela Smith

All my life I have had a deep-seated aversion to all physical exercise and sport so, until I encountered Scottish Country Dancing, 'exercise' and 'enjoyment' were two words that in my book could not possibly be linked. So why, you might ask, when I can dance two or more times a week, go to dances, dayschools and dance weekends have I recently joined a health club and started going regularly to the gym. and the swimming pool? I blame the Alzheimer's Society! In a moment of summer madness a work colleague and I signed up to go to Peru next May to raise sponsorship money for the Society by walking the Inca Trail.

Machu Picchu - the final destination.

For the last 16 years I have been working in the NHS with older people with mental health problems and see on a daily basis the devastating effects that dementia has on individuals and their families. Therefore raising money for the Alzheimer's Society is especially meaningful to me. The Society is the UK's leading care and research charity for people with dementia, their families and carers. It provides information and support services, funds research into cause, cure and care and provides caring grants for people with dementia and their careers. Now my colleague Cheryl Buckley and I have the daunting task of raising £5,200 between us. For me, however, the task of getting fit enough to walk for up to 12 hours a day at high altitude is a far more daunting challenge given that I currently get tired just climbing the stairs to my top floor flat! Hence the health club and lots of Scottish country dancing as I think it will be a long job to increase my fitness to the required level. I have also convinced Cheryl of the joys and benefits of Scottish country dancing and she has now joined Barbara's beginners class.

If anyone would like to sponsor us or talk to either of us about any issues connected with dementia or the Alzheimer's Society we would be delighted to hear from you. I plan to be at most Wednesday and Thursday classes or I can be contacted by telephone on 0117 942 6284 or by e-mail at angela.smith@awp.nhs.uk.

Chairmans last bit

At last you cry - no more ramblings of a deranged Chairman!

I write as your outgoing Chairman to welcome you back to dancing for another season and if you are new Welcome and I hope you are enjoying yourselves. I trust you like the new venue - I know we are still bedding in, but I hope that we will welcome Members of Barbaras class in due course. Any comments good or bad about the venue to the committee please.

It has been frustrating time for me to be at the helm - so to speak and not have been able to Dance for the last year, but I want to thank the committee for all their support and you the members of Bristol Branch for your encouragement and support over the last two years. The good/bad thing is that I am now able to resume my dancing (pick what you want)

I'm sorry that I haven't changed the world, but I leave knowing that

Bristol is something special and in the knowledge that you will continue to give the committee and Caroline your support at our forthcoming events and in the future

Thanks once again and Happy Dancing

Keith Henry
