THE ROYAL SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCE SOCIETY

Exeter Branch

AFTERNOON SCHOOL & EVENING DANCE

Saturday 20th October 2018

THE VICTORY HALL,
BROADCLYST, EXETER EX5 3DX

Teacher: Alice Stainer

Musician: George Roberts

Alice Stainer, our teacher, learned to dance as a student in Oxford. Although she resisted taking her teaching certificate for a long while in favour of simply enjoying dancing, she eventually gave in. Since then she has led an RSCDS Youth Workshop, taught at Summer School, and taken Day and Weekend Schools around the south of England and in Germany, as well as teaching regular classes for her home branch, RSCDS Oxfordshire, finding that she genuinely delights in exploring with her classes both the rigours and the joys of dance.

George Roberts, our musician, learned Scottish Country Dancing at the Saltash Club, where he has been a member since 1989. He is the leader of "Celtic Capers" a three-piece Scottish Country Dance Band formed in 2004, which performs mainly across Devon and Cornwall. As a solo accordionist, George also regularly plays for workshops and technique classes organised by the Cornwall Branch of the Royal Scottish
